When the Boys Come Sailing Home!

March - Lyric by Helen Abert

Music by

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA

Price, 60 cents net

HAROLD FLAMMER
INCORPORATED

PUBLISHER
OF AMERICAN WORKS

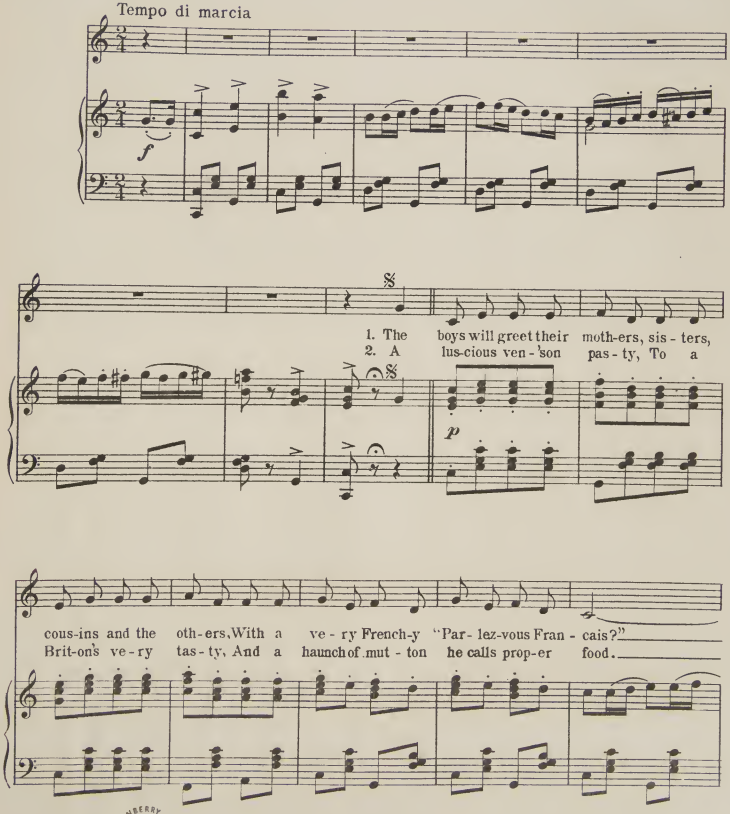
NEW YORK CITY
56 WEST 45TH STREET

THE NEWBERRY LIBRARY
CHICAGO

When the Boys Come Sailing Home

Helen Abert

John Philip Sousa



Tempo di marcia
f
1. The boys will greet their moth-ers, sis - ters,
2. A lus-cious ven - ison pas - ty, To a p cous-ins and the oth-ers, With a ve - ry French-y "Par - lez-vous Fran - cais?"
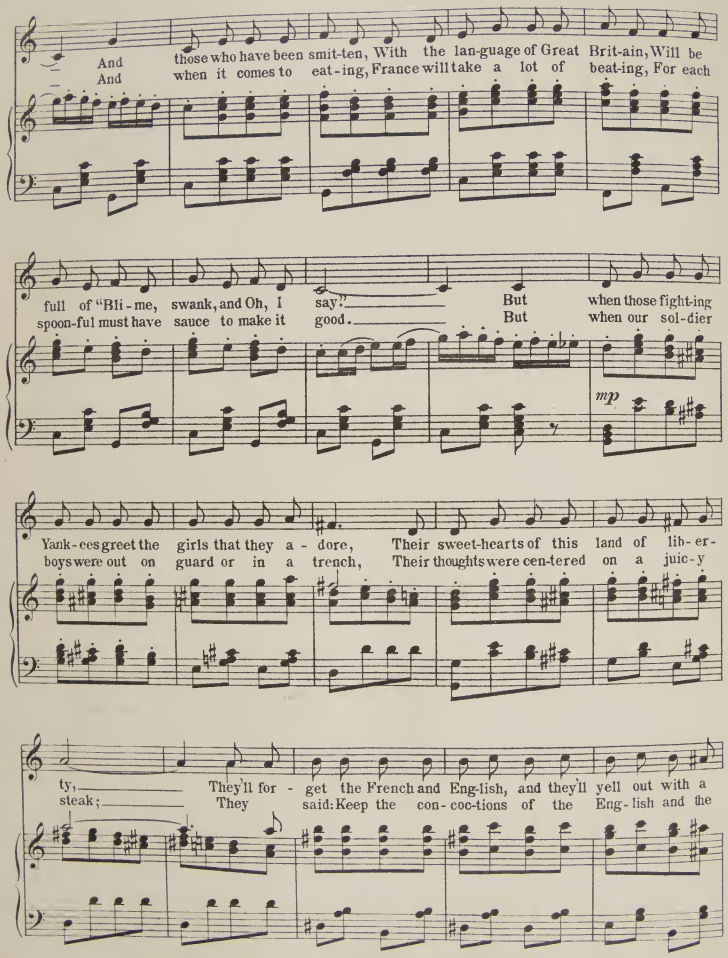
Brit-on's ve-ry tas-ty, And a haunch of mut - ton he calls prop-er food.

THE NEWBERRY LIBRARY CHICAGO

Copyright, 1918, by Harold Flammer, Inc.



And those who have been smit-ten, With the lan-guage of Great Brit-ain, Will be
And when it comes to eat-ing, France will take a lot of beat-ing, For each full of "Bli-me, swank, and Oh, I say!"
spoon-ful must have sauce to make it good.
But when those fight-ing
But when our sol-dier
mp
Yank-ees greet the girls that they a-dore,
boys were out on guard or in a trench,
Their sweet-hearts of this land of lih-er-
Their thoughts were cen-tered on a juic-y
ty,
steak;
They'll for-get the French and Eng-lish, and they'll yell out with a
They said: Keep the con-coc-tions of the Eng-lish and the roar: "Say girl - ie, but you sure look good to me"

French; Give me the pies that moth - er used to make"
Refrain
When the boys come sail - ing home, When the boys come sail - ing home, The girls will hug them, kiss them and ca - ress them When the boys come sail - ing home;

All together
When the boys come sail - ing home,
f
When the boys come sail - ing home
The girls will hug them, kiss them and ca - ress them, When the boys come sail - ing home.

Sung by DAVID BISPHAM

Honey Mine

Lyric and music by Helen Howarth Lemmel

Andante
Voice
Piano
mp
look in - to my eyes, hon-ey mine,
warm with-in my breast, hon-ey mine.
There's a pic-ture you will see,
In the heart you give to me, Tis the
And wher-
pic-ture of a face, hon-ey mine,
ev - er you may go, hon-ey mine,
That is all the world to me
All my heart with you will be
And the While your

Copyright, 1918, by Harold Flammer, Inc.

Song Edition	.60
For Chorus of Men's Voices	.12
For Unison Chorus	.05

HAROLD FLAMMER
Incorporated
56 West 45th Street New York City

Dedicated to and Sung by
The LOTUS MALE QUARTETTE
· BOSTON ·

When The Boys Come Sailing Home

Patriotic Song

with Chorus (ad lib.)

for

— Male or Mixed Voices —

Music by

Elise Salisbury Lister

PRICE 50 CENTS

C. W. Thompson & Co.
· BOSTON ·

When the Boys Come Sailing Home

Words by
R. N. LISTER

Music by
ELISE SALISBURY LISTER

Con brio

Piano

mf ff

Moderato March time and steady

There's a bea - con light in ev - 'ry home That shines a - cross the
How glad will be the meet - ing When we greet this loy - al

sea; And its rays will guide our sol - dier boys Safe back to you and band! How hap - py all our hearts will be As we grasp each brave strong

rit. a tempo

me. Let us keep this light se - rene and bright This love-light of the hand! "Oh, France we love, and Eng-land, too;" We'll hear them proud-ly

rit. a tempo

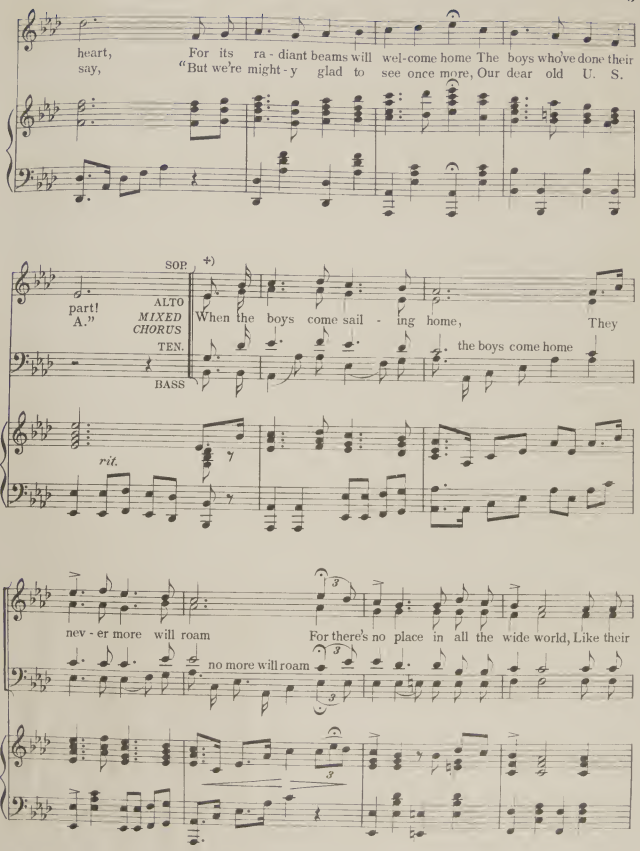
T & Co 2305 4

Copyright MCMXVIII by C. W. Thompson & Co.



heart, For its ra - diant beams will wel-come home The boys who've done their say, "But we're might - y glad to see once more, Our dear old U. S.
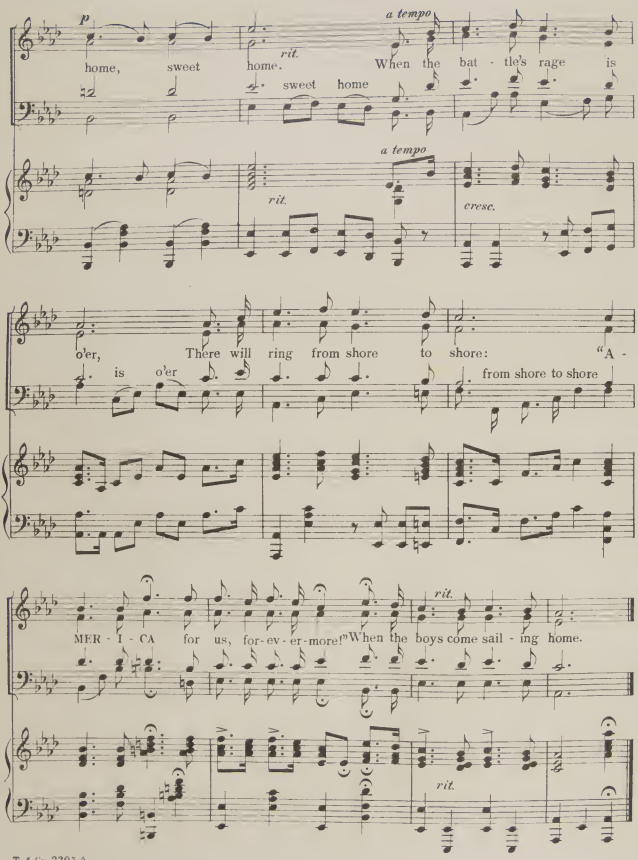
SOP.
part! ALTO
A." MIXED CHORUS
TEN.
BASS
When the boys come sail - ing home, They
the boys come home
rit.
nev - er more will roam For there's no place in all the wide world, Like their
no more will roam

+) Use upper notes for Solo



p
a tempo
rit.
home, sweet home. When the bat - tle's rage is sweet home
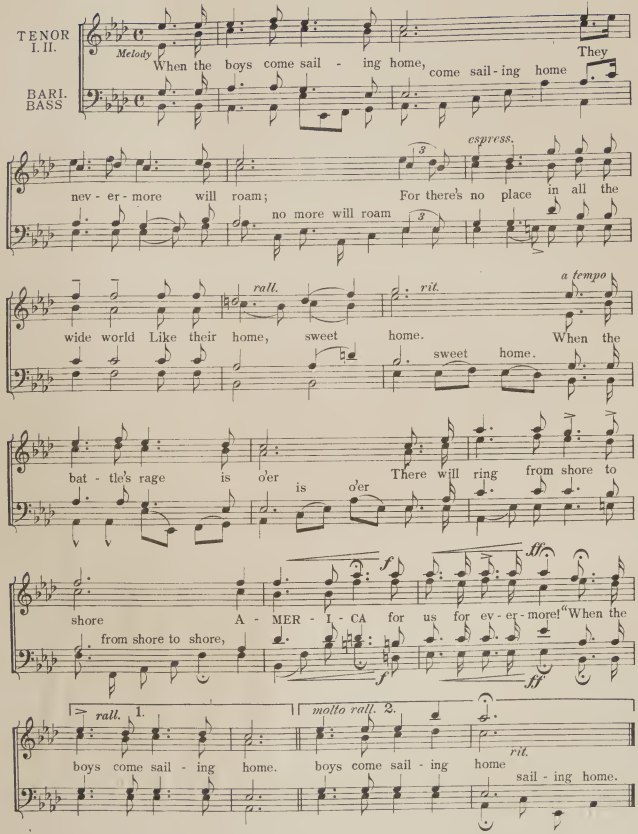
a tempo
rit.
cresc.
o'er, There will ring from shore to shore: "A -
is o'er
from shore to shore
rit.
MER - I - CA for us, for-ev-er-more!" When the boys come sail - ing home.
rit.

When the Boys Come Sailing Home

MALE CHORUS



TENOR I. II.
BARI. BASS
Melody
When the boys come sail - ing home, They come sail-ing home espress.
nev - er - more will roam; For there's no place in all the
no more will roam
rall.
rit.
a tempo
wide world Like their home, sweet home. When the sweet home.
bat - tle's rage is o'er There will ring from shore to
is o'er
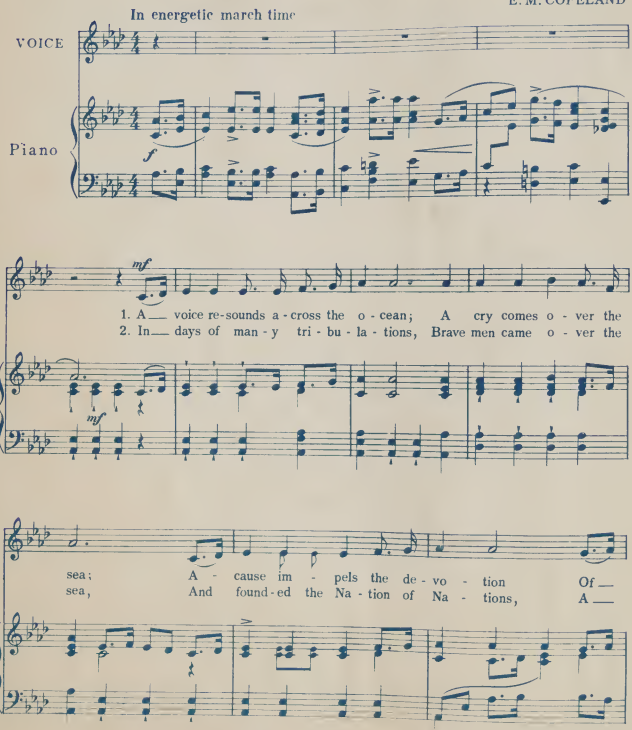
f ff shore A - MER - I - CA for us for ev - er - more! When the
from shore to shore,
rall. 1.
molto rall. 2.
rit.
boys come sail - ing home. boys come sail - ing home
sail - ing home.

Our Country's Call

Patriotic Song

Words and Music by
E. M. COPELAND



In energetic march time
VOICE
Piano
f mf
1. A voice re-sounds a-cross the o-cean; A cry comes o-ver the
2. In days of man-y tri-bu-la-tions, Brave men came o-ver the
mf
sea; A-cause im-pels the de-vo-tion Of sea, And found-ed the Na-tion of Na-tions, A T.C. Co. 2383-3

Copyright MCMXVIII by C.W. Thompson & Co.

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES

WHEN THE BOYS COME SAILING HOME

— AS FEATURED BY THE —

MARCUS MUSICAL ATTRACTIONS

Words and Music by

— CHAS. - ABBATE —

WRITER OF

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE.
WE'RE ALL LONELY FOR YOU IN VIRGINIA.
MARY JANE.
MY PRETTY BUTTERFLY.
LET'S PAINT THE TOWN TONIGHT.
MY BONNIE ROSE.
MR. MOON.
I LOVE TO LOVE IN THE WINTER.

Published by the MARCUS & ABBATE Publishing Co.

WHEN THE BOYS COME SAILING HOME

Words and Music by CHAS. ABBATE

INTROD.
VOICE
Sol-diers are pre-par-ing ev'ry day To sail a - way, Far, far a - way. See their lov'd ones weep-ing ev'ry - where. There's a feel-ing of sad-ness in the air But all this sad-ness will soon change to glad-ness And hap-py days once more we'll see, For when all is said and done, And our vic-t'ry has been won, What a hap-py day t'will be.
VAMP

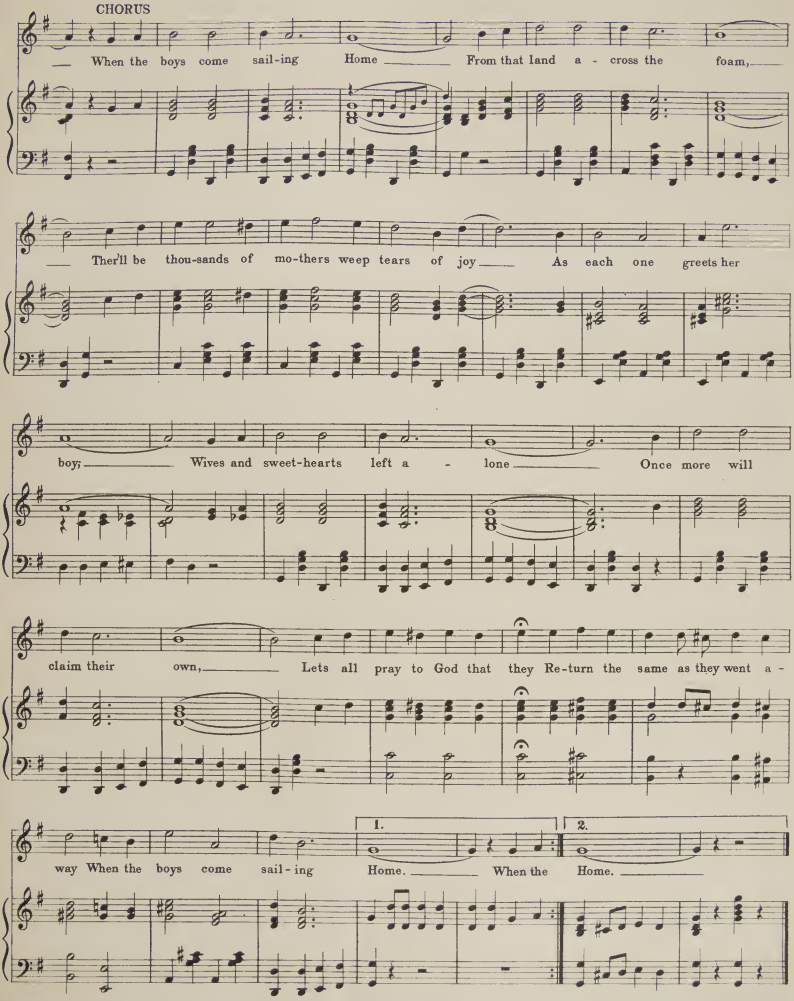
Professional and Music Hall rights reserved

Copyright 1918 by A.B. Marcus

THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY
CHICAGO



CHORUS
When the boys come sail-ing Home From that land a - cross the foam, Ther'll be thou-sands of mo-thers weep tears of joy As each one greets her boy; Wives and sweet-hearts left a - lone Once more will claim their own, Lets all pray to God that they Re-turn the same as they went a - 1.
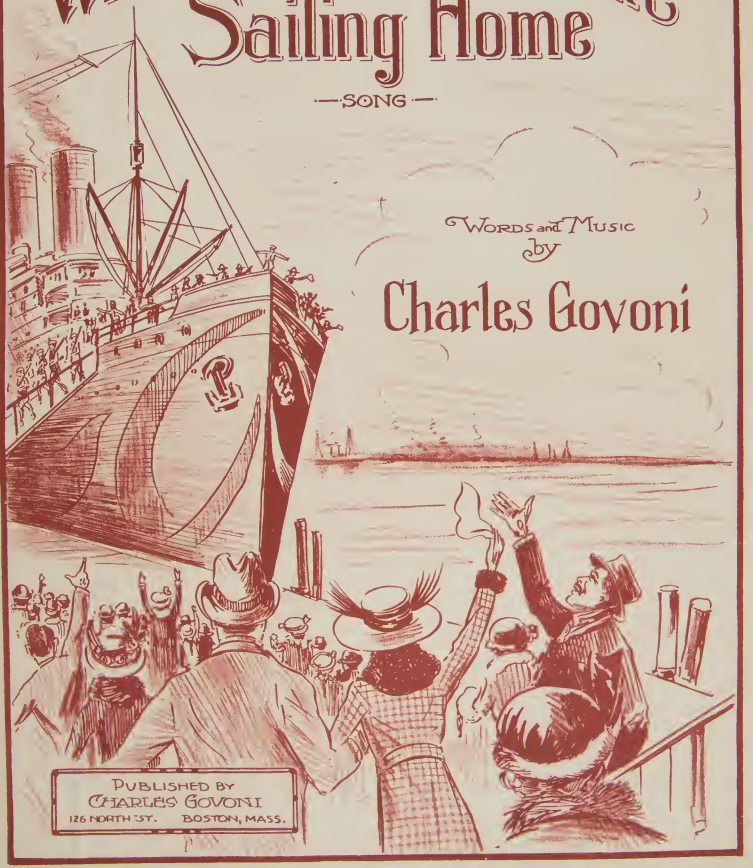
2.
way When the boys come sail-ing Home. When the Home.

When The Boys Come Sailing Home

—SONG—



Words and Music
by Charles Govoni

PUBLISHED BY CHARLES GOVONI
126 NORTH 3ST. BOSTON, MASS.

When The Boys Come Sailing Home

Words and Music by
CHARLES GOVONI

Tempo di Marcia VOICE PIANO
f
They'll all be ser-e - nad-ing The boys will be pa -
The old folks are pre - par-ing The boys are soon re-Vamp
fz
p
p rad-ing When they come sail - ing home
turn-ing Back home a - cross the pond
For-get all your sor - rows and They're anx-ious-ly wait - ing for greet them with joy
them to re - turn
Hip, Hip, Hoor-ay for our own sol-dier boys
Oh, how they yearn for those lads to re-turn
For they're com-ing back once Ev-'ry moth-er will be

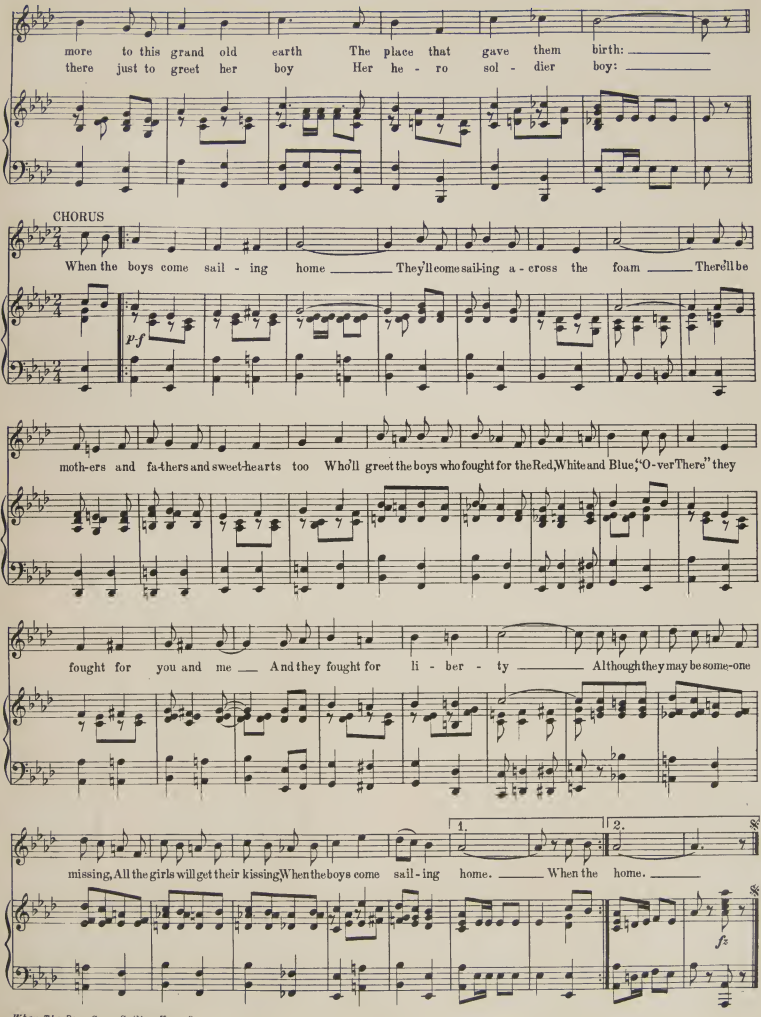
Copyright, 1918, by Charles Govoni



more to this grand old earth The place that gave them birth:
there just to greet her boy Her he - ro sol - dier boy:
CHORUS
When the boys come sail - ing home They'll come sail-ing a - cross the foam There'll be p f moth-ers and fa-thers and sweet-hearts too Who'll greet the boys who fought for the Red, White and Blue, "O-ver There" they fought for you and me And they fought for li - ber - ty Although they may be some-one missing, All the girls will get their kissing When the boys come sail - ing home. When the home.
1.
2.
f z

Dedicated to and Sung by
The LOTUS MALE QUARTETTE
· BOSTON ·

When The Boys Come Sailing Home

Patriotic Song

with Chorus (ad lib.)

for

— Male or Mixed Voices —

Music by

Elise Salisbury Lister

PRICE 50 CENTS

C. W. Thompson & Co.
· BOSTON ·

When the Boys Come Sailing Home

Words by
R. N. LISTER

Music by ELISE SALISBURY LISTER

Con brio
Piano
mf
ff
Moderato March time and steady
There's a bea - con light in ev - 'ry home That shines a - cross the
How glad will be the meet - ing When we greet this loy - al
sea; And its rays will guide our sol - dier boys Safe back to you and band! How hap - py all our hearts will be As we grasp each brave strong rit.
a tempo
me. Let us keep this light se - rene and bright This love-light of the hand! "Oh, France we love, and Eng-land, too;" We'll hear them proud-ly
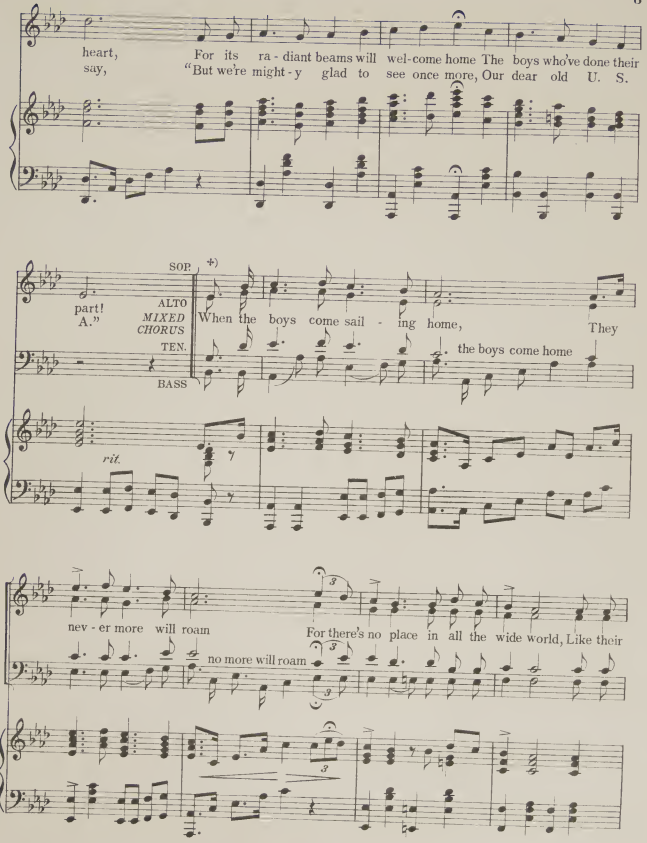
rit.
a tempo

Copyright MCMXVIII by C. W. Thompson & Co.



heart, For its ra - diant beams will wel-come home The boys who've done their say, "But we're might - y glad to see once more, Our dear old U. S.
SOP. +)
ALTO
part! MIXED
A." CHORUS
TEN.
BASS
When the boys come sail - ing home, They
the boys come home
rit.
nev - er more will roam
no more will roam
For there's no place in all the wide world, Like their +) Use upper notes for Solo

p
home, sweet home.
rit.
a tempo
When the bat - tle's rage is sweet home
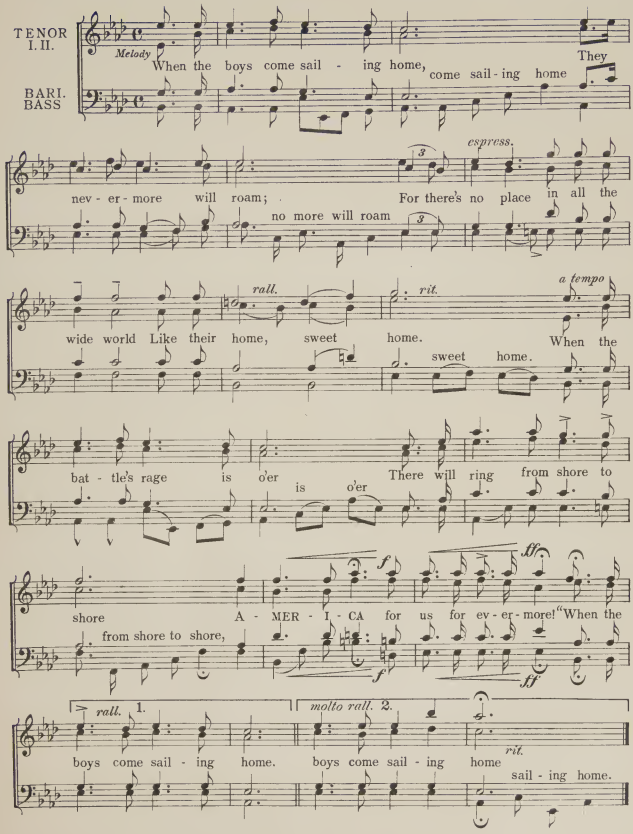
a tempo
rit.
cresc.
o'er, is o'er
There will ring from shore to shore:
"A -
from shore to shore
MER - I - CA for us, for-ev-er-more!"
rit.
When the boys come sail - ing home.
rit.

When the Boys Come Sailing Home

MALE CHORUS



TENOR I. II.
BARI. BASS
Melody
When the boys come sail - ing home, They come sail - ing home express.
nev - er - more will roam; For there's no place in all the
no more will roam
rall.
rit.
a tempo
wide world Like their home, sweet home. When the sweet home.
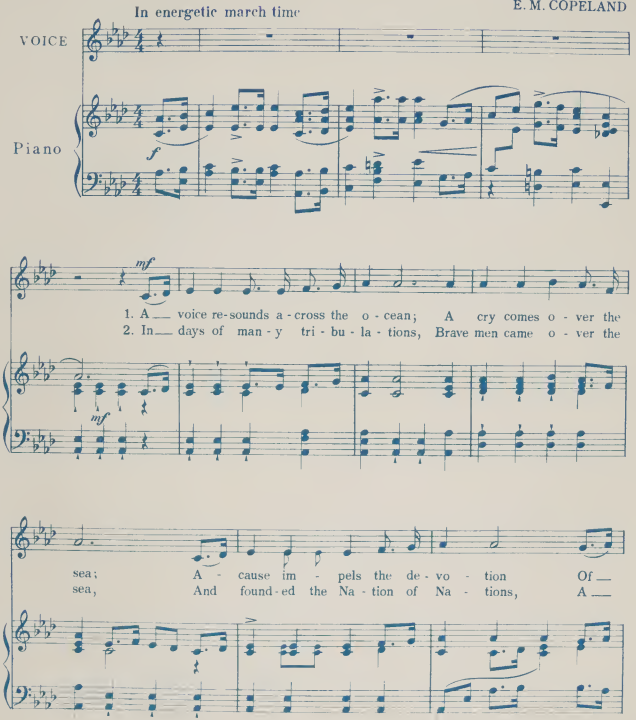
bat - tle's rage is o'er There will ring from shore to
is o'er
f
ff
shore A - MER - I - CA for us for ev - er - more! "When the
from shore to shore,
rall. 1.
molto rall. 2.
rit.
boys come sail - ing home. boys come sail - ing home
sail - ing home.

Our Country's Call

Patriotic Song

Words and Music by
E. M. COPELAND



In energetic march time
VOICE
Piano
f mf
1. A voice re-sounds a-cross the o-cean; A cry comes o-ver the
2. In days of man-y tri-bu-la-tions, Brave men came o-ver the
mf
sea; A-cause im-pels the de-vo-tion Of
sea, And found-ed the Na-tion of Na-tions, A

Copyright MCMXVIII by C.W. Thompson & Co.

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES